240 DISCUSS
NEW INDUSTRY

Bucks County
Leaders Hear
Expert Advice

By BOB REINHARDT
Courier and Times Staff Writer

An overflow crowd of 240 enthusiastic Bucks County and local officials, businessmen, and industrialists discussed the county's industrial problems yesterday and last night at the first county-wide Conference on Economic Development.

Community cooperation, taxes, and zoning are among the factors industries consider in looking for a place to build, the Bucks Countians were told by two panels of experts in the fields of industry, planning, real estate, development, and local government.

Good
Evening!

It figures: No spring, just summer.

Mercury in the 70's yesterday, headed for the mid-80's today and summer clothes coming right out of the mothballs.

Do the kids still skip school in responding to beckoning of the ol' swimmin' hole? Hey, where's the nearest one!

Anybody skipping that county development conference at Doylestown C. C. yesterday afternoon and last night missed quite a party.

An interesting meeting if for no other reason than some 200 men of the county got together and thought and talked about our most essential need at the moment — industrial development, especially in Lower Bucks.

Of course the big question: What happens after all of the speeches?

In any event, freshest of orchids for Charley Hunter who handled the unprecedented affair to the satisfaction of everyone, and Franklin Wood who worried the arrangements through to an unexpectedly large attendance and unusual interest.

You know something? We're getting places.

County, Bristol borough and Bristol township establish complete rapport on their Silver Lake recreational park thinking and acting and development already virtually under way.

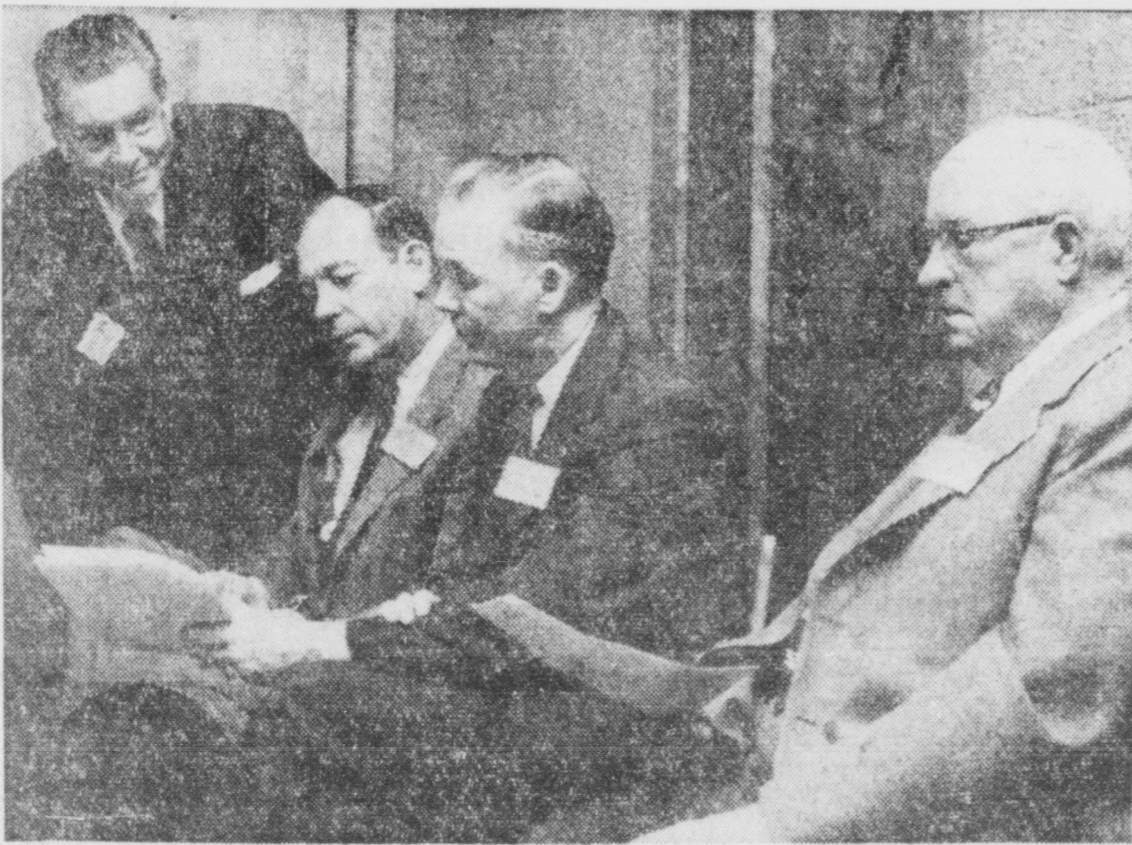

That's the sort of energetic movement for bettering the public good we like to see.

The fellow told his boss he was entitled to a day off with pay — to make up for the coffee breaks he missed while he was on vacation.

Father: "My son doesn't want to get married."
Second father: "Wait until the wrong girl comes along."

A woman can be mighty sweet when she wants.

Watch your driving.

Looking over the agenda at Bucks County's first Conference on Economic Development are (from left) Charles E. Hunter, chairman of the Bucks County Development Committee and County Commissioners Adolph Andrews, John T. Welsh, board president and Thomas R. Lewis.

Panelists who discussed "Community factors industry considers in selecting a site" yesterday at the county's first Economic Development Conference are (from left) seated, Roland Rodrock Randall, real estate consultant; George Burnham, IV, assistant to the vice president of U.S. Steel Corp. and a member of the County Development Committee, moderator; and Britton Harris, project director of the University of Pennsylvania for Urban Studies; standing, Beeber Gross, real estate agent of the Reading Co., Angus Johnson, Middletown township division, Pennsylvania Power and Light Co.

Today's Heat
May Top Mark

Soaring humidity and soaring temperatures gave early spring a mid-summer tint today in Lower Bucks.

The thermometer might break a 15 year heat record today if it pushes past the 1942 record for the date of 82.

The thermometer jumped to 80 degrees by 1 p.m.

The humidity was recorded at 78 per cent, an abnormally high reading for this time of the year, the Weather Bureau at Trenton reported.

Cloudy skies today will be spotted by occasional showers tonight with an overnight low near 60.

Tomorrow will be cloudy and a little cooler than today with an afternoon high in the 70's.

Yesterday top mark was 73 at 4 p.m. and this morning's low was 62 at 4 a.m. It was 78 at 10 a.m.

Force Used, They Claim

Call Girls Refute
Rackets Affidavit

WASHINGTON (UP)—Two women narcotics addicts testified today they signed false affidavits against a Senate Rackets Committee star witness because a Portland, Ore., deputy sheriff threatened to jail them or send them to a mental hospital.

They told the committee that after signing the statements, the deputy — George Minelli — gave them money and urged them to hide from a Portland grand jury and to keep clear of the rackets committee.

Minelli called their testimony "the greatest hoax ever pushed on the American people."

Mrs. Kathleen Lucille Cooper Weeks, a self-described prostitute and narcotics addict, said the statements in the affidavit she made against Portland racketeer James B. Elkins were "false."

Elkins was the star witness for the committee in its expose of racket and vice operations in Portland a month ago.

Mrs. Mary Childress, who said she is "not a prostitute" although she was arrested in 1933 as one, said the statements she made against Elkins also were false.

She supported Mrs. Weeks' statement that Minelli had threatened them.

Mrs. Childress said she is "not acquainted" with Elkins and cannot say whether or not he is a racketeer.

At Hospital

Anti-Polio Shots
Available Today,
Tomorrow, Saturday

Three hundred persons were lined up outside the out-patient department of Lower Bucks County Hospital at noon today when the doors opened for the $1 Salk anti-polio shots.

The hospital staff doctors and other volunteers worked quickly to speed them through the vaccination process. In the first hour 378 shots had been given.

Dr. Walter Maloney and Dr. Lester G. Steppacher were the first of the staff members to give the shots.

The county Health Department warns that any child who has a cold should not be given the inoculations.

The three-day clinic started at noon today, and will continue to 8 p.m. It will be repeated the same hours tomorrow and Friday. Children and adults from infancy up to and including 40 years of age are eligible, and can receive first, second or third shots.

The program is sponsored by the hospital medical staff, whose members are volunteering their time to give the shots, augmented by volunteer nurses and clerks. The $1 fee goes into a revolving fund to replenish the supply.

An indication of how big the demand may be came this week when the 3,000 application forms distributed in advance proved completely inadequate. Some 3,500 more were hastily printed and grabbed up.

More Lollipops

Steelworkers of the Fairless Works came to the hospital to pick up 1,000 forms, including 200 for white collar workers in the National Tube Division. The forms were also quickly exhausted from the other distribution centers, the Bucks County Health Department office in Levittown, the Bristol borough police station and the AFL-CIO Council office in Levittown.

Petrucchio
Is Sentenced

A Bristol man who admitted operating a gambling house in the borough was sentenced to three months to a year in Bucks County Prison yesterday, fined $200 and ordered to pay court costs of $31.35.

The man, John Petrucchio, 46, of 1023 Garden St., may also face perjury charges for conflicting testimony given during two days of court testimony.

President Judge Edward G. Biester, who sentenced Petrucchio, suggested to District Attorney Donald W. VanArtsdalen that he consider filing the perjury charge.

Denny On Probation

Another man, Charles Denny, 601 Pond St., Bristol, who with Petrucchio pleaded guilty to setting up and maintaining a gambling establishment, was given a six-month suspended sentence, placed on probation; and fined $200. He will pay costs of prosecution of $31.30.

Henry C. Bloss, director of Operation Mercy at Camp Kilmer, will be principal speaker at the annual dinner meeting of the Lower Bucks County Chapter of the American National Red Cross, Pennsylvania Inn, Morrisville, Monday at 7 p.m.

Mr. Bloss, a native of Allentown and York, will describe his experiences as director of Operation Mercy, which covers the American Red Cross Services for Hungarian Refugees at Camp Kilmer.

The Pause That Replenishes

Mrs. Walter Repella, 32 Swan Lane, Stonybrook, Levittown, checks the contents of the shopping bag awarded free to all the women who attended the Cooking School at the Towne Theatre sponsored by the Courier and Times and the Levittown Businessmen's Association. Son, Don helps mom check the free collection of goods.

Second-Day Crowd Jams
Giant Free Cooking School

For the second straight day, a capacity crowd jammed the Towne Theatre in the Levittown Shopping Center today for the last session of the two-part Cooking School.

Sponsored by the Levittown Times and Bristol Courier and the Levittown Businessmen's Association, the Cooking School treated more than 1100 women to a peek at the electronic age of cooking.

At yesterday's session, a turnaway crowd enthusiastically received delectable menus prepared on stage by Mary Galbally, home economist for Philadelphia Electric Company.

First In Line

The crowd turned out early with Mrs. Gladys Leidy, 6 Mill Creek Road, Bristol Township, the first on the scene at 11:45 a.m. Half an hour before starting time, the theater was jammed to the 1100 per on limit which the fire laws allow. More than 200 disappointed women were turned away.

The women saw foods cooked with the latest electrical appliances but the real highlight was the newest miracle of scientific research, the Kelvinator Electronic Range from Yard's which operates with radio waves and cooks food in seconds. The women saw a potato baked in four minutes, a light fluffy cake done in six minutes, and a baby bottle warmed in just 20 seconds.

Full Loads

All the housewives went home with shopping bags loaded with free grocery store merchandise. Over 15,000 free gifts, including food and appliances, were distributed.

Women Faces
Liquor Charge

A Levittown woman was scheduled to have a hearing tomorrow in Morrisville on a charge of violating the State Liquor Control Board act by transporting one case of beer across the state line.

Mrs. Eileen Ellis, 17 Crabtree Drive, Crabtree Hollow, is to appear before Morrisville JP Harry Christ, charged with purchasing a case of beer in a Trenton Store and transporting it from New Jersey to Pennsylvania.

She was apprehended by Liquor Control authorities as she crossed into Pennsylvania from New Jersey at the Morrisville side of the lower free bridge across the Delaware.

Body Found In Creek
Near City Line

An unidentified body was discovered in Pennypack Creek, City Line and Roosevelt Boulevard about noon today, Philadelphia's 7th District Police said.

Preliminary investigation is still going on at the scene, police said, and no reports have been filed at headquarters.

Pennsy RR
Strike Looms

PHILADELPHIA UP—A strike of some 25,000 members of the Transport Workers Union has been threatened against the Pennsylvania Railroad in a jurisdictional dispute.

Andrew J. Kaelin, vice president of the union, said yesterday some 90 per cent of the members voted to authorize the leaders to take whatever steps are necessary. The strike, if called, could be delayed for a "cooling period" under the Railway Labor Act.

Kaelin said the dispute involves the assignment to members of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen of work done in the past by car inspectors under the jurisdiction of the transport workers.

Date Is Changed For Meeting On Stadium

A public meeting to discuss the proposed stadium for the Bristol Township area set for tomorrow has been postponed until Tuesday night.

Mrs. William McEldowney, chairman of the Delhaas PTA activities committee which first proposed the stadium, said the meeting was postponed because of conflicting meetings.

Catholics Are Forbidden To Hear Billy Graham

NEW YORK (UP)—Roman Catholics were warned today that they are expressly forbidden to listen to evangelist Billy Graham in Madison Square Garden, on radio or television, or to read his books or sermons.

The Rev. John E. Kelly, director of the Bureau of Information of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, writing in the Homiletic and Pastoral Review, a magazine for Roman Catholic priests, said there is much to admire in Graham's preaching.

But he said—Graham preaches "heresy" in his insistence that there is no denomination which is the true church of Christ.

"Catholics are not permitted to participate in Protestant religious services," Father Kelly wrote.

He said the Reverend Graham's published works contain doctrines which are either false in themselves or false because they are incomplete and thus "fall within the scope of the index and reading them is forbidden by canon law."

"Catholics should not tune in on Billy's radio and television programs," Father Kelly wrote. "So well constructed are his sermons, so interwoven is true and false doctrine, so forceful and persuasive is his delivery, that even a fairly well instructed Catholic may be deceived."

Father Kelly said that despite the church's position, many Roman Catholics have listened to and read Dr. Graham's preaching.

For all Roman Catholics, Father Kelly wrote, "Billy is a danger to the faith."

Ninth Ward Backs Coman For Board

The six Democratic committee people in Bristol Township's Ninth Ward have backed Thomas F. Coman, Jr., for appointment to the township's Board of Commissioners, it was announced today.

Coman, committeeman from the third precinct, is currently secretary of the board. However, he has submitted his resignation which will become effective at the discretion of the new township manager.

Vacancy Created
A vacancy was created on the board last week when Edward A. Wiler, Jr., resigned after he was ousted as president of the board in a fight between Democratic factions. Wiler represented the Ninth Ward. Coman is a political associate of Wiler.

Along with Coman, Robert Frederick has been mentioned as a possible candidate for the vacancy. Frederick's support comes from the faction which ousted Wiler.

A spokesman for this group said nothing definite has been set yet and they would be willing to consider "an unknown" who has no ties with either faction.

The Board of Commissioners may act on the appointment at a special meeting tonight. The meeting has been called for 9 p.m.

Sallie Fisher, committeewoman from the third precinct of the Ninth Ward, said petitions are being circulated in support of Coman.

She added "We are amazed at the results." Miss Fisher said the petitions were being circulated among registered Republicans as well as Democrats. She reported that 80 per cent of the voters she contacted have signed the petitions.

Jury Sets Colella Free

Augustine Colella, 1150 Beaver St., Bristol, yesterday was acquitted by a criminal court jury of knowingly renting his property at 1152 Beaver St. for gambling purposes.

The jury deliberated less than a half hour before freeing Colella. Another charge of knowingly permitting gambling on his property was dismissed by President Judge Edward G. Biester before the case went to the jury.

Colella, defended by Attorney Marvin Cohen, Levittown, did not testify on his own behalf.

Two character witnesses, Vincent Galzerano, 430 Radcliffe St., Bristol, and G. Wesley Williams, Abington, his superintendent at Janney Cylinder Co., Holmesburg, testified on Colella's behalf stating that he has an excellent reputation and that, to their knowledge, has never been in trouble.

Vincent Massi, 241 Radcliffe St., a realtor, also testified that as Colella's agent, he rented the property to John Petruccio, 1023 Garden St., Bristol, on a year's lease, and that the lease stipulated the property was to be used as a billiard parlor.

Massi said Petruccio signed the lease on July 16 and was to pay $125 a month.

Petruccio was arrested Dec. 22 in a state police raid and was sentenced yesterday on a gambling charge.

Petruccio testified that Colella never saw the gambling and that he told Colella he wanted to rent the property for use as a pool hall.

Police Arrest Man On Check Charge

A Newtown man was arrested on charges of forgery and issuing a worthless check by Middletown Township police last night.

The suspect, Robert L. Otto, 23, of 134 East State St., Newtown, was arraigned before JP Frederick Holly last night. Holly ordered him held under $1000 for a further hearing. Otto is being detained in the Bristol Borough jail until he can raise the bail.

Police Chief Edward C. Shook reported that Otto admitted passing a $25 check to the Bucks County Texaco Station, at Routes 1 and 413 on Feb. 23.

Anti-American Tone Rises In Jordan

By WALTER LOGAN
United Press Staff Correspondent

Stone-throwing mobs battled police in Jordan's cities today in a leftist attempt to overthrow the government of pro-Western Premier Hussein El Khalidi. The nation appeared near open civil war. King Hussein's throne itself was threatened as loyal Arab Legionnaires sought to halt the mobs of Palestinians who wish to link Jordan's fate with Egypt and pro-Communist Syria.

The demonstrations—and general strikes which paralyzed the desert nation—took an anti-American tone and there were steady chants of "down with Eisenhower... down with the doctrine."

The U.S. Embassy alerted its personnel in Amman to be ready for evacuation in case dangerous fighting broke out. The embassy said it had lost contact with the American consulate in the Jordan sector of Jerusalem.

Massive demonstrations eclipsing the riots in Amman were reported in Jericho, Jerusalem, Nablus and Ramallah. The road was cut between Amman and Jerusalem.

CBS Correspondent Richard Kallan reported at 8 a.m. e.s.t. the demonstrations were called off but that the demonstrators were ordered out again for Thursday if the government does not give in. He said the alert at the United States Embassy was relaxed.

The Arab Legion, crack fighting force of the Arab world, ringed Jordan with tanks and armored cars should it be called upon to fight the Palestinian Jordanians.

Club Hears CAP Talks

Members of the Falls Township Lions Club had as their guest speakers, three young officers of the Upper Delaware Valley Civil Air Patrol from Bristol at their meeting in the Pennsbury Inn last night.

Cadet Lieutenant, Thelma Souby, Cadet Lieutenant, Paul Ward and Cadet Lieutenant, Donald Bantom, each spoke on the development of their patrol and its function since it was organized.

They explained that this unit of CAP is primarily interested at this time in radio transmission and communications. After their talks, members of the Lions Club asked questions about the work of CAP and a discussion was held.

A short business meeting was held at which time the nominating committee placed the names of the coming year's officer candidates before the club.

Jacob Bauer, Sr., was the sole nominee for president and Norman Cook the only nominee for vice-president. Election of officers will be held at the May 14th meeting.

Arrangements were completed for Lion members who will attend the International Convention in June at San Francisco.

Seeing
Levittown
By LEE GARB

RELATED EASTER NOTE: According to Jim Goodman, new Times reporter, the following remark was overheard in one of the area churches on Easter Sunday: "You would think that the people who come to church regularly would stay home on Palm and Easter Sundays to make room for those who only attend on holidays!"

BOX SCORE: Last week we ran an item about Midge Clark, LPRA solicitor in Magnolia Hill who had sold $400 worth of subscriptions in just a few days... the night the item ran we were talking to "Went" Kneller who is in charge of Levittown East and he told us that it was more like $1200. Checking with Midge, he came up with a total to date of $1340. This represents 134 families paid up, and Midge asked that we mention how very nice the people are in her section and how enjoyable they've made her job.

Two Die, 7 Hospitalized Mysterious Cramps Have City Jittery

GARY, Ind. (UP)—A medical official said today "some sort of acute poisoning" apparently is responsible for an outbreak of mysterious stomach cramps which have killed two children and hospitalized seven others.

Dr. Samuel J. Brady, Gary Health Board secretary, said steel city residents have become jittery as a result of the outbreak, and "I suppose everybody in Gary has been suffering abdominal cramps."

Brother, Sister Die
The stomach attacks began during the week end when Joan Smith, 3, and her brother, Dwight, 18 months, died of the ailment at Gary Methodist Hospital.

The cause of their deaths has not yet been determined. The victims' four brothers and sisters, who also were stricken, are in a Chicago hospital where officials say they are recovering.

Three Others
Two neighbors of the Smiths, Gregory McCloud, 7, and his brother, Arthur, 14, were hospitalized with cramps Monday, and Alonzo Jacob, 9, who lives about a mile from the Smith home, was taken to a hospital yesterday.

Brady said it appeared the children were suffering from poisoning.

"It's possible it all stems from a single cause," he said, "but so far we don't know what it is."

Rape Charge Nol Prossed
A Philadelphian who was scheduled to be tried on a rape charge yesterday may never face his victim in a courtroom.

The victim, a woman with a history of mental illness, has suffered a complete loss of memory as the result of shock treatments administered since the alleged attack.

The treatments, according to police, were for a condition which existed before the incident, and the woman does not now remember her attacker, the police who investigated, or the incident itself.

Consequently, the district attorney's office yesterday nol prossed the charges against William F. Baker, 1714 Van Kirk St. In effect, the action means the charge will not be prosecuted.

However, Chief of Police William Riemp, Bensalem, said it will still be possible to prosecute Baker in the future, if the woman recovers her memory of the incident and that he would prosecute.

Steamroller Shoots 42-Year-Old Man Dead
LIVERPOOL, England—UP—George Sale, 42, was "shot" dead by a steamroller yesterday.

Police said the steamroller was crushing rock when a sharp piece of stone flew from under it and pierced Sale through the heart.

ANPA Speaker Attacks Travel Ban
NEW YORK (UP)—William Dwight, president of the American Newspaper Publishers Assn., charged today that the U.S. government is responsible for keeping the Bamboo Curtain around Red China.

In a strong attack on the State Department's ban on travel by American newsmen in China, Dwight told the ANPA's 71st annual convention that the government's policy runs counter to "the people's right to know—a precious right inherent in our way of life."

He promised that the ANPA would continue to oppose this policy "at the highest level."

Chief Justice Held On Drunk Charge
ATLANTA (UP)—Chief Justice W. H. Duckworth of the Georgia Supreme Court was arrested in downtown Atlanta shortly before midnight Tuesday on charges of intoxication on the streets.

After being booked at city jail, he was released in custody of Police Chief Herbert Jenkins who said he would stand up for the state's top jurist at a scheduled trial today.

A SHOCKING DEVELOPMENT
MOBILE, Ala. (UP)—The Spring Hill College, whose seismograph has recorded earthquakes all over the world, failed to report a rare Alabama tremor yesterday.

The Rev. L. J. Eisele, who has faithfully tended the seismograph for years, was on vacation.

Two things that came up during last night's LCA meeting are worthy of mentioning here... one is the need for an active SPCA for the Lower Bucks area, and the other is the need for a station down here for driving tests. The old jitney idea reared its head again as an answer to "how are the kids going to get to the Levittown Library?"

Date Changed For Group's Next Session

Joseph Segal, 24 Rainbow Lane, Red Cedar Hill, was nominated for the office of president at last night's meeting of the Levittown Civic Association.

Other nominations were: for vice-president, Sid Charles, 283 Elderberry Drive; for treasurer, Richard Rittenhouse, 72 Friendly Lane, Farmbrook; and for secretary, Terri Sorin, 40 Teaberry Lane, Thornridge.

Election Of Officers

Election of officers will be held at next month's meeting and committee chairmen will be appointed at that time.

It was announced that the LCA will meet on Tuesday, May 23, since the regular meeting date conflicts with the primary elections.

A report by the Incorporation Study Committee was made by Joseph Segal, co-chairman, who described the work currently being done by speakers. Mr. Segal said that any groups that wish to present a speaker on the subject of incorporation at a meeting can contact either him or John Bowers, co-chairman.

Henry J. Lottio, president of LCA reported on the Citizens' Educational Council and said that this group, which was an outgrowth of the LCA Education Committee is now able to function independently, and will hold its first regular monthly meeting May 1 at the Ben Franklin School at 8:30 p.m. School Board candidates in Bristol Township have been asked to appear at the meeting.

Fifth Birthday
In other business, Mrs. Sorin was made chairman of a committee which will contact all Levittown organizations to plan for the celebration of Levittown's fifth birthday this June.

A motion was made to have the LCA charter revised to allow for the abolition of general monthly meetings.

"The Levittown Civic Association now has nearly a 1,000 paid-up members," said Mr. Lottio, "but our attendance at monthly meetings is poor unless there is a 'hot' issue that month. In view of this situation, perhaps the idea of just calling on the general membership when there is such an issue is a good one."

"Regular meetings of the Executive Committee would be held, and the board of directors would be reactivated," he said. The motion was tabled until the next meeting.

General Discussion
The meeting was opened to general discussion during which it was apparent that there are still plenty of "issues." Sidney Charles was appointed to attend the next meeting of the Falls Township Supervisors to discuss such problems as the condition of drainage ditch fencing, rats in the ditches and "eyesores" created by residents who refuse to mow their lawns.

Lee Garb was appointed to contact the Civil Air Patrol to discuss the problem of low-flying planes that "buzz" the homes and pools, flying below the legal limit; and Joseph Segal was asked to attend the next Bristol Township Commissioners meeting to see what can be done about street repairs in the Levittown section of that Township.

It was announced that at the next meeting of LCA the following subjects will be discussed: The establishment of a driver testing station in Lower Bucks County, the possibility of establishing a lower county branch of SPCA, and the extension of the Levittown Parkway sidewalk from Mill Creek Parkway to Newportville Road.

Not Sacrifice Position
"Edward B. Boyer is the assistant county chairman representing Lower Bucks. Certainly, I discuss problems affecting his area with him. I would be a dictator if I didn't. Bill Lindeberg must, because of his position, be at headquarters much of the time and naturally he is interested in many phases of Republican activity. To neither of them, or to anyone else, have I sacrificed my position as county chairman."

"Can Fuoco deny the democratic process of our Screening committee, of which he was a member, or the democratic decision of our executive committee? Can he honestly say I, or anyone else, rammed candidates down the throats of the Executive Committee?"

Elected To Position
"I am the county chairman, elected to this position by the Republican committeemen and committeewomen last June. As their elected leader I have not and do not intend to allow anyone to supersede my position."

"The statements by William Fuoco last week were illogical, juvenile and certainly unfounded. Bill Fuoco knows this better than anyone else. He knows I have not been dictatorial, but have consulted with many people on important decisions."

"Fuoco was dropped from the Executive Committee because a large majority of the Bristol Township Committee people petitioned that it be done. And it is to the committee people that I am responsible."

Haitian Dance Group Lauded

By JIM GOODMAN
Courier and Times Staff Writer

"Daylight Come"—but no one was anxious to go home from the McCarter Theatre, Princeton, last night where a capacity audience cheered Jean-Leon Destine and his Haitian Dance Company.

Their performance was only half-over when the enthusiastic audience response brought, Richard Pleasant, theatre manager director to the fore to announce a return engagement for the group at the McCarter Theatre, June 14 and 15.

A couple of excellent, relaxed Calypso singers, Ted Browne and Lady Calypso, stopped the show with their renditions of the satirical folk songs that have made their island world-famous.

Converted Oil Drums

There was the inventive King Rudy and his Steel Band. Armed with converted oil drums, King Rudy and his friends created a musical spell that could never be duplicated by the likes of Lawrence Welk.

Alphonse Cimber and Edner, Calvin were a pair of drummers whose rhythmic impulses proved endlessly fascinating.

But the highlight of the evening was dancing. Mr. Destine was magnificent and his companions were almost as extraordinary.

Muscle Control

The dances were a combination of savage impulse, miraculous muscle control and an elegance that is almost impossible to describe.

Calypso is gossip, ribald humor, social protest, and athletic sport—but more than anything it is a testament to the human spirit that will endure beyond the limitations of public fancy.

All in all, it was a great show. Since "My Fair Lady" is not likely to hit this neighborhood in the near future, Bucks countians would do well to get their reservations in early for the next appearance of Mr. Destine and Company.

3 Fairless Works Appointments Made

Three management appointments in Central Operations of the Fairless Works of the United States Steel Corporation were announced today by Edgar B. Speer general superintendent.

Appointed were Albert T. McIlhenny to supervisor, works general management in the general superintendent's office; Malcolm A. Wilkinson to supervisor, order entry and general service, production; Francis A. DeMichele to metallurgical and inspection department.

Man Fined $100 In Sale Of Fireworks

David Malamut, 2281 Fayette St., Philadelphia, yesterday was fined $100 for possessing and selling illegal fireworks at the Bristol Farmers' Market, Route 413, Bristol township.

Malamut admitted to Judge Edwin H. Satterthwaite that he sold auto "burglar alarms," "cracker duds" and cigarette "pegs" at his stand at the market, but he said he didn't know they were illegal.

"Atom Pellets"

He also told Bristol township police, who arrested him on Dec. 29, that he sold "atom pellets."

Sgt. Richard Templeton, who bought an auto burglar alarm from Malamut to gain evidence, described it as an oblong cylinder which attaches to the ignition and a spark plug.

When the ignition is turned on, the "alarm" gives off a loud whistle, starts smoking, follows with a loud bang! and then shoots flame. The officer said the sequence sometimes cracks the insulation on the spark plug.

259 Pieces Confiscated
